7. The National Employment Standards

7.1 The National Employment Standards (NES) as contained in Part 2-2 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (the Act) are the minimum entitlements to which an Employee covered by this Agreement is entitled to. This Agreement may provide ancillary or supplementary terms in respect of the NES.

7.2 This Agreement provides industry and enterprise specific detail where it deals with a matter provided for in the NES.

8. Agreement flexibility

8.1 Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Employer and an individual Employee may agree to vary the application of certain terms of this Agreement to meet the genuine individual needs of the Employer and the individual Employee. The terms the Employer and the individual Employee may agree to vary the application of are those concerning:

- (e) leave loading.

8.2 The Employee may appoint a representative to assist in discussions regarding an Individual flexibility Agreement.

8.3 The Employer and the individual Employee must have genuinely made the Agreement without coercion or duress.

8.4 The Agreement between the Employer and the individual Employee must:

- (a) be confined to a variation in the application of one or more of the terms listed in clause 8.1; and

8.10 The right to make an Agreement pursuant to this clause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an Agreement between an Employer and an individual Employee contained in any other term of this Agreement.

Part 2 – Consultation and Dispute Resolution

Definition of Consultation:

Consultation means a serious attempt through a fair exchange of views is made in order to reach an understanding and consensus. For the purpose of this clause, the parties adopt the following comments made by Smith C. in CPSU, the Community and Public Sector Union v Vodaphone Network Pty Ltd (Print PR911257) “Consultation is not perfunctory advice on what is about to happen. This is a common misconception. Consultation is providing the individual, or other relevant persons, with a bona fide opportunity to influence the decision maker ... Consultation is not joint decision making or even a negative or frustrating barrier to the prerogative of management to make decisions. Consultation allows the decision-making process to be informed, particularly as it may affect the employment prospects of individuals.”

9. Consultation regarding major workplace change

9.1 This term applies if the Employer:

- a. has made a definite decision to introduce a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to its enterprise that is likely to have a significant effect on the Employees; or
- b. proposes to introduce a change to the regular roster or ordinary hours of work of Employees.

- a. the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the decision to introduce the major change and their Union; and
- b. subclauses (9.3) to (9.9) apply to Employees and the Union.

9.3 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.

9.4 If:

- a. a relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of consultation; and
 - b. the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative;
- the Employer must recognise the representative.

9.5 As soon as practicable after making its decision, the Employer must:

- a. discuss with the relevant Employees:
 - (i) the introduction of the change; and
 - (ii) the effect the change is likely to have on the Employees;and

(iii) the measures the Employer is taking to avert or mitigate the adverse effect of the change on the Employees; and

- b. for the purposes of the discussion – provide, in writing, to the relevant Employees:
- (i) all relevant information about the change including the nature of the change proposed; and
 - (ii) information about the expected effects of the change on the Employees; and
 - (iii) any other matters likely to affect the Employees.

9.6 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.7 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the major change by the relevant Employees.

9.8 If a term in this Agreement provides for a major change to production, program, organisation, structure or technology in relation to the enterprise of the Employer, the requirements set out in paragraph (9.2) (a) and subclauses (3) and (5) are taken not to apply.

9.9 In this term, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on Employees if it results in:

- a. the termination of the employment of Employees; or
- b. major change to the composition, operation or size of the Employer's workforce or to the skills required of Employees; or
- c. the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure); or
- d. the alteration of hours of work; or
- e. the needs to retrain Employees; or
- f. the need to relocate Employees to another workplace; or
- g. the restructuring of jobs.

9.10 Change to regular roster or ordinary hours of work

For a change referred to in paragraph (9.1) (b):

- a. the Employer must notify the relevant Employees of the proposed change; and
- b. subclauses (9.11) to (9.15) apply.

9.11 The relevant Employees may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this term.

9.12 If:

- a. relevant Employee appoints, or relevant Employees appoint, a representative for the purposes of the consultation, and
- b. the Employee or Employees advise the Employer of the identity of the representative;

the Employer must recognise the representative.

- 9.13 As soon as practicable after proposing to introduce the change, the Employer must:
- a. discuss with the relevant Employees the introduction of the change; and
 - b. for the purposes of the discussion – provide to the relevant Employees:
 - (i) all relevant information about the change, including the nature of the change; and
 - (ii) information about what the Employer reasonably believes will be the effects of the change on the Employees; and
 - (iii) information about any other matters that the Employer reasonably believes are likely to affect the Employees; and
 - c. invite the relevant Employees to give their views about the impact of the change (including any impact in relation to their family or caring responsibilities).

9.14 However, the Employer is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant Employees.

9.15 The Employer must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about the change by the relevant Employees.

9.16 For the purposes of cll 9.11 to 9.15, the Employer's educational timetable in respect of academic classes and student activities, which:

- (a) may operate on a term, semester or a School year basis, and
- (b) ordinarily changes between one period of operation and the next, and
- (c) may change during the period of operation, is not a regular roster.

9.17 However, where a change to the Employer's educational timetable directly results in a change:

- (a) to the number of ordinary hours of work of a Employee, or
- (b) to the spread of hours over which the Employee's ordinary hours are required to be worked, or
- (c) to the days over which the Employee is required to work, cll 9.11-9.15 will apply.

9.18 In this term:

relevant Employees means the Employees who may be affected by a change referred to in subclause (9.1)

10. Dispute resolution

10.1 If a dispute relates to:

- (a) a matter arising under the Agreement, except a matter relating to the actual termination of employment of an Employee that could more properly be characterised as a unfair dismissal matter that should be dealt with in accordance with Part 3-2 of the FW Act, or
- (b) the NES,

this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.

10.2 An Employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purposes of the procedures in this clause.

10.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level, by discussions between the Employee or Employees and relevant supervisors and/or management.

10.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to FWC.

10.5 FWC may deal with the dispute in two stages:

- (a) FWC will first attempt to resolve the dispute using one or more of the following methods: mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion and making a recommendation; and
- (b) if FWC is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, FWC may then:
 - (i) arbitrate the dispute; and
 - (ii) make a determination that is binding on the parties.

Note: If FWC arbitrates the dispute, it may also use the powers that are available to it under the Act. A decision that FWC makes when arbitrating a dispute is a decision for the purpose of Division 3 of Part 5.1 of the Act. Therefore, an appeal may be made against the decision.

10.6 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause:

- (a) an Employee must continue to perform his or her work as he or she would normally unless he or she has a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to his or her health or safety; and
- (b) an Employee must comply with a direction given by the Employer to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
 - (i) the work is not safe; or
 - (ii) the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 (Vic.) would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - (iii) the work is not appropriate for the Employee to refuse to comply with the direction.

10.7 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision made by FWC in accordance with this clause.

11. Employment Relations Consultative Committee

11.1 It is agreed between the parties to this Agreement that an Employment Relations Consultative Committee will be established by the end of Term 1 each year.

11.2 The Principal, on behalf of the Employer, shall consult with the Employment Relations Consultative Committee on the following:

11.4 The Employment Relations Consultative Committee shall make recommendations to the Principal regarding the issues set out in sub-clause 11.2.

11.5 Once established, the Employment Relations Consultative Committee shall meet once per term with the Principal. The Employment Relations Consultative Committee shall have the right to call additional meetings with the Principal as required.

- (c) either:
 - (i) the Employee was requested by or on behalf of the body to engage in the activity; or

17.3 Paid Natural Disaster Leave

17.3.1 An Employee is entitled to up to 2 days paid leave to protect his or her property in the event that the property is threatened or directly affected by a natural disaster.

17.4 Notice and Evidence

- (a) must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started) and;
- (b) must advise the Employer of the period, or expected period of the leave.

17.4.2 An Employee who has given the Employer notice under 17.4.1 must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the absence is because the Employee has been or will be engaging in an emergency service activity under clause 17.2 or to protect property in accordance with clause 17.3.

17.4.3 An Employee must comply with notice and evidence requirements of this clause to be eligible for the leave.

18. Parental Leave

 - (ii) the placement of a child with the Employee for adoption; and
- (c) the Employee has or will have responsibility for the care of the child.

18.3 An Employee who has taken unpaid parental leave for the Employee's available parental leave period may request a further period of up to 24 months' unpaid parental leave.

18.4 Concurrent Leave

18.4.1 An Employee, who is a member of an Employee couple, where each of the Employees intends to take unpaid parental leave, is entitled to take concurrent leave, which is taken at the same time that the Employee, who has responsibility for the care of the child has taken leave:

- (a) for up to eight weeks during the 12 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the child;
- (b) with the leave to commence no earlier than the date of birth of the day of placement on the child, unless the Employer agrees to different arrangements;
- (c) with the leave taken in one continuous period or in separate periods, with each period not being less than two weeks, unless the Employer otherwise agrees.

18.5 Extension or reduction of parental leave

18.6.2 The Employer must give the Employee a written response to the request stating whether the Employer grants or refuses the request. The response must be given as soon as practicable and not later than 21 days after the request is made.

18.6.3 The Employer will consider the request having regard to the Employee's circumstances and provided the request is genuinely based on the Employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable business grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the Employer's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and impact on customer service.

18.7 Paid Parental Leave

18.7.1 An Employee who has completed at least 12 months of continuous service and who qualifies for, and takes unpaid parental leave to be the primary care giver of the child, is entitled to 16 weeks' payment at the Employee's full rate of pay for the period that would otherwise be unpaid leave.

18.7.2 An Employee who is eligible for paid parental leave may elect to observe that entitlement at the weekly rate of pay for half the Employee's ordinary hours of work in the pre-parental leave position spread over double the period of time (Half Pay Leave). This means that the Employee will receive the same entitlements as an Employee who did not elect to observe Half Pay Leave. For example, an Employee who is eligible for 16 weeks of paid parental leave and combines that with two weeks of paid school holidays, has a total of 18 weeks of paid leave and may elect to observe that entitlement at full pay for 18 weeks or at half pay for 36 weeks.

18.8 Paid Partner Leave

18.8.1 An Employee who qualifies for, and takes, unpaid concurrent leave of up to eight weeks, is entitled to payment at the Employee's ordinary rate of pay for up to 10 days of concurrent leave that would otherwise be unpaid. 18.9.3 In order for an Employee to access a second or subsequent period of paid parental leave, the Employee must have returned to work for a period of 52 weeks.

- 18.9.4 Paid parental leave counts as service and accrues pro rata annual leave, personal leave and long service leave.
- 18.9.5 A period of unpaid parental leave does not break an Employee's continuity of employment but does not count as service.
- 18.9.6 For an employee who is eligible for paid parental leave, the school will consider flexible arrangements for the taking of the leave, including but not limited to taking parental leave in smaller blocks and/or taking parental leave at half pay. Approval of requested arrangements will give consideration to the individual circumstances, the needs of the children, and the efficient operation of the school.

18.10 Special Leave related to Parental Leave

- 18.10.1 If the pregnancy of an Employee ends by miscarriage, or the birth of a still born child, or the child is born and later dies, at least 20 weeks into the pregnancy, the Employee is entitled to take the full amount of parental leave (including any paid parental leave to which the Employee is entitled) that the Employee originally intended to take.
- 18.10.2 If the pregnancy of an Employee ends by miscarriage, or the birth of a still born child, or the child is born and later dies, proceeding at least 20 weeks into pregnancy, and the Employee wishes to return to work prior to the intended end date of the parental leave, then they are able to do so provided the Employee gives written notice of her intention to do so with the Agreement of the Employer. If partner leave or parental leave has been approved but leave has not yet commenced, and the pregnancy of the Employee's pregnant spouse/partner ends by miscarriage, or the birth of a still born child, or if the child is born and later dies, the partner or parental leave applied for but not commenced will be cancelled.

- 18.11.1 An Employee who is on a fixed-term contract and who meets the eligibility criteria in clause 18.2(a) is entitled to paid parental leave.
- 18.11.2 If a fixed-term Employee is unable to take the maximum paid parental leave entitlement due to the end of their fixed-term contract, the Employer must pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to the balance of the paid parental leave not taken. For example, if a fixed-term Employee entitled to paid maternity leave takes eight weeks' paid parental leave immediately prior to the end of her fixed-term contract, she will be entitled to be paid a lump sum equivalent to the remaining eight weeks' paid parental leave not taken.
- 18.11.3 If a fixed-term Employee would otherwise be eligible to paid parental leave but the expected date of birth of the child is no more than six weeks after the end of the Employee's fixed-term contract, the Employer must, at the end of the contract, pay the Employee a lump sum amount equivalent to 16 weeks of paid parental leave. For example, if an Employee is on a fixed-term contract that ends on 28 January and the Employee is due to give birth on 6 February, the Employee will be entitled to a 16 week lump sum payment at the end of the contract.

21.2 Payment for work on a public holiday

21.3 Substitution of public holidays

21.4 The Employer and an Employee may agree to the Employee taking another day as the public holiday in lieu of the specified day.

21.5 An Agreement made in accordance with 21.4 must be recorded in writing and made available to every affected Employee. Any such Agreement must be recorded in the time and wages records kept by the Employer.

22.8 Illness during long service leave

Subject to the requirements of clause 22, an Employee, who becomes ill or suffers an injury during long service leave and has an entitlement to sick leave, is entitled to have the period of illness or injury treated as sick leave, with long service leave re-credited to the Employee. The Principal may require the Employee to be examined by a Registered Medical Practitioner of the Employer's choice, provided the practitioner is reasonably accessible to the Employee.

- 22.9 The Employee's application under 22.8:
- (a) must be received by the Employer during the period of illness or injury;
 - (b) must be accompanied by a medical certificate from a Registered Medical Practitioner or a statutory declaration attesting to the illness or injury and the duration of that illness or injury; and
 - (c) must indicate whether the Employee wishes to extend the long service leave by the period of the illness or whether the Employee will return from long service leave as planned with the period of illness or injury increasing the Employee's accrued long service leave entitlement.

For General Staff members periods of long service leave will be for no shorter than single days.

22.12 Where an Employee has not accrued sufficient leave to cover a full term the Employer may grant a period of leave without pay in conjunction with the period of long service leave. The granting of leave without pay in these circumstances will be at the discretion of the Employer.

22.13 An Employee may request the Employer to grant the Employee an amount of long service leave twice as long as the amount to which the Employee would otherwise be entitled and at a rate of pay equal to half the Employee's ordinary pay.

23.4 Leave without pay does not break the continuity of employment but any period of leave without pay in excess of 15 days in any school year is not taken into account in calculating the period of service of the Employee for any purpose of this Agreement. Except that for General Staff, periods of leave without pay for longer than 52 weeks will not be taken into account in calculating period of service for Long Service Leave purposes only.
